Appendix D (Best Interest Determination)

Though the specific factors may vary depending on context, in order to make a holistic and well-informed determination, a variety of student-centered factors should be considered. These factors include the appropriateness of the current educational setting and proximity of placement. [ESEA section 1111(g)(1)(E)(i)]. Listed in no particular order, these factors may include:

1. Safety considerations;
2. Proximity of the resource family home to the child’s present school;
3. Age and grade level of the child as it relates to the other best interests factors;
4. Needs of the child, including social adjustment and well-being;
5. Child’s performance, continuity of education and engagement in the school the child presently attends;
6. Child’s special education programming if the child is classified;
7. Point of time in the school year;
8. Child’s permanency goal and likelihood of reunification;
9. Anticipated duration of the placement;
10. Preferences of the child;
11. Preferences of the child’s parent(s) or education decision maker(s)
12. The child’s attachment to the school, including meaningful relationships with staff and peers;
13. Placement of the child’s sibling(s);
14. Influence of the school climate on the child, including safety;
15. Availability and quality of the services in the school to meet the child’s educational and socio-emotional needs;
16. History of school transfers and how they have impacted the child;
17. How the length of the commute would impact the child, based on the child’s developmental stage;
18. Whether the child is a student with a disability under the IDEA who is receiving special education and related services or a student with a disability under Section 504 who is receiving special education or related aids and services and, if so, the availability of those required services in a school other than the school of origin; and
19. Whether the child is an EL and is receiving language services, and, if so, the availability of those required services in a school other than the school of origin, consistent with Title VI and the EEOA.
